

Customer Experience is a module that sits within the suite of Level 4 modules. You can also combine this with other Level 4 mandatory and elective modules to achieve the CIM Certificate in Professional Marketing.

Our qualification and award pathways have been structured to reflect the need for a flexible and bite-size approach for today's professional marketer.

Bite-size awards

Each module can be achieved as a distinct, self-contained award which can be built up to attain the full certificate.

Full qualification

To achieve the qualification, a pass in BOTH mandatory modules PLUS one elective module is required.

* Currently there are two elective modules available. This will be continually reviewed.

Marketers increasingly need to develop deeper knowledge of customers in different contexts. This module will enable you to understand and enhance customer experience.

Aims of the Module

This module recognises how deeper knowledge of customer requirements within different contexts allows organisations to enhance customer experience. It provides the skills and understanding to assess customer expectations in context and to develop and deliver activities that meet those expectations. It introduces customer experience frameworks and highlights how to establish effective monitoring and measurement techniques that ultimately enable organisations to improve customer experience.

Module structure

Three units with two learning outcomes each. Each learning outcome will be covered by the related assessment criteria (weighting indicated in brackets).

By the end of this module you should be able to:

Unit 1: Customer context

- Understand the range of different contexts across which marketers operate (15%).
- Understand the importance of customer expectations (15%).

Unit 2: Customer experience

- Understand the different dimensions of customer experience (20%).
- Deliver activities that enhance customer experience (20%).

Unit 3: Measuring and monitoring

- Know how to monitor and measure customer experience in context (15%).
- Use metrics to improve future customer experience (15%).

Assessment: Assignment

A 12 page assignment, of three tasks, based on a given scenario and an organisation of choice.

Our assessments comply with regulatory requirements, are fit for purpose, fair, valid, reliable and manageable to ensure confidence in the standard of learner achievement.

CIM Level 4 module: Customer Experience

Who is it for?

This module is aimed at the aspiring professional marketer who wishes to gain knowledge and skills to succeed and progress within a career in marketing.

Ideal for those working in marketing support roles (eg marketing assistants) or whose current job encompasses elements of marketing.

- Blended (a combination of face-to-face and distance learning).

How long will it take to study?

Notional learning time – this is the amount of time expected to take, on average, to complete the learning outcomes of a module to the standard defined by the assessment criteria and includes:

- Guided learning hours.
- Practical and work-based learning.
- Assessment preparation time.
- Assessment time.

Each module will take 130-150 hours notional learning time.

There are three assessment sessions per year.

What are the costs?

Our qualifications and bite-size awards represent a sound investment in your future and your employer may therefore be willing to sponsor you.

The costs depend on the course, the mode of study and the Accredited Study Centre. Some study centres may bundle costs together, you should expect to pay for tuition fees, study materials, assessment fees and CIM membership.

Costs for tuition will vary depending on your chosen study centre, so it is worth contacting a few to compare prices, find out what is included and the levels of support offered.
