About CIM

CIM (The Chartered Institute of Marketing), is an Ofqual regulated qualifications provider and is accredited by the European Marketing Confederation. We currently have over 12,500 studying members, in 118 countries and 18,000+ assessments are taken by our students every year.

We believe marketing is a critical factor in driving long term organisational performance and our mission is to create marketing advantage for the benefit of professionals, business and society.

To help achieve our mission, we have a global network of Accredited Study Centres (ASCs) who deliver our qualifications and ensure a high standard of education in marketing.

Our range of professional qualifications, along with our many membership benefits, are designed to support you throughout your career, develop your capabilities, expand your communities and stay informed.

Our qualifications are based on our unique Professional Marketing Competencies, devised with industry partners to help you meet the ever increasing demands expected of marketers at every stage of your career.
Professional Marketing Competencies

CIM's Professional Marketing Competencies are a framework of marketing standards, which provide a guide to the skills and behaviours that are expected of professional marketers at varying levels of proficiency.

Developed from extensive research with employers and employees in both marketing and broader business functions, the competencies are unique to CIM. Each qualification module has been designed based on the competencies. They offer the professional marketer the reassurance that the skills and knowledge they will develop when studying a CIM qualification are closely matched to those required in the market.

More information at:
cim.co.uk/competencies
Core
The core competencies sit at the heart of marketing and are relevant to all marketers regardless of their role, their industry sector or the stage that they have reached in their career.

Technical
The technical competencies are elective, flexible capabilities which identify the knowledge and skills required in specific areas of marketing, reflecting the variation in career progression available in this field.

Behaviours
These capabilities describe the behaviours that marketing professionals need to be able to demonstrate in order to do their jobs efficiently and effectively and contribute to the achievement of business goals.

At CIM, we offer a pathway for your professional marketing development, wherever you work in the world. Our qualifications are developed with employer needs in mind, to provide you with the strategic and tactical skills needed to meet the increasing demands of the marketing industry.

Foundation Certificate in Professional Marketing

Level 3

To gain the Foundation Certificate in Professional Marketing a pass in the mandatory module and the elective module is required. However, each module can be taken as an individual Award qualification, which can be built up to achieve the Foundation Certificate qualification.

Understanding how people think, behave and the psychology behind marketing has always interested me and as a young, 19-year-old marketer, CIM allows me to open up doors for my future. I have recently completed my Foundation Certificate in Marketing, and am now about to start studying for a degree in marketing. My CIM study centre helped me to better understand and expand my knowledge, and for this reason I look forward to completing many more CIM qualifications in the future to enhance my career.

The CIM Diploma in Professional Marketing was the obvious choice: CIM is an internationally respected, leading contributor to the global marketing conversation and the diploma is acknowledged as the benchmark course across the industry. Two modules in, I had already progressed in my career, securing a contract for a top 100 global brand and the world’s biggest paid TV broadcaster Discovery Networks. Shortly after completing the qualification, my potential and abilities were recognised and I was employed permanently as the marketing lead across MEA. The knowledge gained through the course has increased my confidence, authority and ability as a 360° marketer, while having the qualification under my belt has increased the respect and consultation I receive from senior management.

To gain the CIM Marketing Leadership Programme, a pass in both mandatory modules plus one elective module is required. However, each module can be taken as an individual Award qualification, which can be built up to achieve the Leadership Programme.

As a senior marketer in industry, I was privileged to be part of the team that developed the new CIM Marketing Leadership Programme. At a time where marketing is becoming even more critical to business success - and also a time where the profession itself is evolving so rapidly - it is vital for marketing professionals to maintain a razor sharp focus on personal & skills development. I believe this new CIM postgraduate qualification represents a step-change in providing senior marketers with the knowledge, skills and confidence they’ll need to thrive - not only in relation to modern marketing challenges such as personalisation, digital and data - but also around building the fundamental business and strategic skills that marketers need to prosper in forward thinking, customer orientated organisations across all sectors.

Head of Marketing
IBM Global Business Services, UK & Ireland
CIM Marketing Leadership Programme

Qualification overview
This programme sits alongside the qualification suite offered by CIM and its emphasis is upon development of aspiring individuals to facilitate and implement change, rather than achieving a qualification.

They will be ambitious and seeking to advance their career through study, which will have a positive impact on their career and performance within the workplace. The opportunity to build knowledge and skills within a professional network of like-minded marketing professionals is an important aspect of the programme.

The programme has been structured to reflect the researched need for a flexible and bite-size approach to meet the needs of today’s professional marketer. Each module can be achieved as a distinct, self-contained award or combined into the full qualification which will comprise of two mandatory modules and one elective.

Who it is for
- Experienced marketers working at a strategic marketing or management level and aspiring to make the step-up into the boardroom
- Senior marketers wanting to develop their strategic skills to raise their industry profile
- Owners of small and medium size companies keen to grow their business
- Consultants looking for professional recognition and status whether working in large organisations or as independent business owners
- Recipients of the Diploma in Professional Marketing who would like to move up to the highest level of CIM qualifications.

Entry criteria are a combination of:
- Level 6 qualification held or a Bachelor’s or Master’s degree
- Career progression evident – past, present and future
- Experience working at marketing management level
- Scope of current role is sufficient to allow engagement with assessment tasks
- CIM Advanced Certificate in Marketing
- A minimum of five years experience working at senior marketing management level.

If English is not your first language, you will need to demonstrate that you have achieved one of the following English Language qualifications in the last two years:
- IELTS Academic Modules with an overall score of 6.5 (each component pass mark must be 6.0 or above)
- Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English grade b or above.

CIM will consider other equivalent alternatives.

Mode of study
Initially the programme will be available through a limited number of UK based Accredited Study Centres (ASCs) through a face-to-face or blended learning approach to more easily facilitate the networking opportunities required by the learner and to create a community of learners accessing the programme.

Length of study
Research indicated that learners are looking for a programme that can be completed within 18 months. This would allow six months for each module of study. The Total Qualification Time (TQT) is estimated at 6-10 hours per week, which equates to 200 hours per module. This includes both supported and independent learning.

FAQs

I am looking to study a CIM qualification. What are my next steps?
The first step to studying is to enrol with an Accredited Study Centre at [cim.co.uk/study-centres]. Your Centre will discuss your options with you and once you have enrolled, you can then join us ([cim.co.uk/join]) as a studying member and have a wealth of study resources at your fingertips.

How much will it cost?
You will need to pay a tuition fee to your Accredited Study Centre, the cost of which can vary per centre. Fees payable to CIM include your annual membership fee and cost of assessments. You can find a list of appropriate fees on our website. Students are eligible for reduced assessment fees if residing in a country that qualifies for international reduced rates.

Can I study on my own?
Self-study is not an available method of study. To study a CIM qualification, you must be enrolled with one of our Accredited Study Centres. Studying with an Accredited Study Centre means you can be confident that you will receive the best teaching practices, from qualified marketing professionals.

I have a marketing degree. Am I eligible for any module exemptions?
We award exemptions through our Graduate Gateway programme. You can see if your university and degree are included here [cim.co.uk/qualifications/graduate-gateway]

Can I use post-nominal letters after completing my qualification?
If you complete the CIM Marketing Leadership Programme or Postgraduate Diploma in Professional Marketing, you will be able to use the letters, ‘DipM’ after your name. If you complete the Diploma in Professional Marketing or Diploma in Professional Digital Marketing, you would be eligible for associate graded membership ([cim.co.uk/upgrade]) and could use the letters ACIM after your name, whilst holding current membership.

Will I be a Chartered Marketer after completing a CIM qualification?
The prestigious Chartered Marketer status is achieved through a combination of qualifications, experience and Continuing Professional Development (CPD). To become a Chartered Marketer, you must first reach MCIM or FCIM graded membership and then complete two years of consecutive CPD, as well as an online assessment. A CIM qualification at level 6 and 7 will contribute towards your eligibility for graded membership.

Continuing Professional Development

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) is essential to your continued effectiveness as a professional marketer. At CIM, we’re committed to supporting you throughout your career and ensuring that you have the tools to develop in line with industry needs.

Our Chartered CPD Programme provides a focused and logical way for you to keep learning as your career progresses. It benchmarks your skills against our Professional Marketing Competencies framework, enables you to identify any gaps in your knowledge and directs you to a range of activities to help overcome them.

Simply record all the learning and development activities that you undertake over your membership year; whether completed with us, through other organisations, or even things you’ve done on your own.

Your CPD journey can lead to achieving Chartered Marketer status – the mark of an up-to-date, experienced and qualified marketing professional. More information at cim.co.uk/cpd
