Ebsco database access by members of CIM

Access to Ebsco databases are offered to members under these terms and conditions.

You have access to:

- Business Source Corporate Plus is a collection of journals, magazines and newspapers covering all industries and published around the globe. There are 5,600 in full text and many more as abstracts. This collection also contains company records for over one million companies and profiles of the top 10,000+ companies range of industry and country reports. There is a company database facility and thousands of company profiles, many including a SWOT analysis. There are also industry reports contain market overview, market value and segmentation information. Newswires are also included.
- There are then three abstracting services:
 - Library, Information Science & Technology Abstracts is an abstract collection specific to the world of Librarianship and online information retrieval.
 - GreenFILE again a mixture of abstracts covering the topic of the environment.
 - OpenDissertations

To help you get the best out of the databases there are a range of tutorials. These include general usage plus how you can set up a 'MyEbscohost' account that will allow you to save articles in your own area on the Ebsco website, plus allow you to set up alerts for particular journals or subjects. You could, for example, set up an alert for the next issue of a journal or maybe set up an alert for your own company to see where you are mentioned in the press.
